

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK
PUBLIC AFFAIRS BROADCASTS
MAY 1999 - p. 1 of 5

FACE THE NATION

- 05/02/99 Crisis in Kosovo: release of the three American hostages
- 1) Late developments at the White House: the role of Rev. Jesse Jackson/Milosevic's letter to President Clinton
 - 2) Interview with Deputy Secretary State Strobe Talbott about his reaction to the release and Milosevic's peace overture
 - 3) Interview with Sen. John McCain about the motives behind the release of the American POWs; his proposal in the Senate granting the President blanket authority to conduct war
- Guest Correspondent:
Scott Pelley, CBS News White House Correspondent (1)
- Guests:
Strobe Talbott, Deputy Secretary of State (2)
Sen. John McCain (R., Arizona) (3)
- 05/09/99 Mistaken bombing of the Chinese Embassy in Belgrade
- 1) Interview with James Sasser, U.S. Ambassador to China about: massive demonstrations in China; his inability to leave the Embassy; and the safety of U.S. personnel
 - 2) U.S. Senate reactions: China's exploitation of the incident; failure of U.S. intelligence
 - 3) Report from Belgrade: damage to the Chinese Embassy
 - 4) Report from the Pentagon: placing the blame on human error
 - 5) Update from Ambassador Sasser about the situation in Beijing
- Guest Correspondents:
John Roberts (in Belgrade) (3)
David Martin (at the Pentagon) (4)
- Guests:
James Sasser, U.S. Ambassador to China (1,5)
Sen. Joseph Lieberman (D., Connecticut) (2)
Sen. Sam Brownback (R., Kansas) (2)
- 05/16/99 1) The war in Kosovo:
- a) NATO confirmation of bombing that took the lives of 80 civilians
 - b) lack of signs that Milosevic is ready to negotiate
 - c) U.S. reluctance to activate Apache attack helicopters
 - d) decision to continue the air campaign/calling up of the Reserves
- 2) Gun Control: Democratic and Republican viewpoints on effective legislation/eliminating loopholes in current gun laws
- Guest Interviewer:
Thomas Friedman, The New York Times (1)
- Guests:
William Cohen, Secretary of Defense (1)
Gen. Henry Shelton, Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff (1)
Sen. Wayne Allard (R., Colorado) (2)
Sen. Charles Schumer (D., New York) (2)
- 05/23/99 1) Interview with Secretary of State Madeleine Albright about:
- a) the entry of ground forces into Kosovo/the air campaign
 - b) possibility of a negotiated settlement with Milosevic
 - c) theft of nuclear secrets by China
- 2) Interview with Sen. Trent Lott about: the breach of security involving China/ground troops in Kosovo/Senate gun control measures
- 3) Chinese espionage case: the need for new leadership in the Justice Department
- Guests:
Madeleine Albright, Secretary of State (1)
Sen. Trent Lott (R., Mississippi) (2)
Sen. Richard Shelby (R., Alabama) (3)
Sen. Robert Torricelli (D., New Jersey) (3)

FACE THE NATION (continued)

- 05/30/99
- 1) Interview with Rep. Chris Cox about the Chinese espionage scandal:
 - a) the value of the stolen material/document supplied by a Chinese double agent
 - b) placing accountability: Attorney Janet Reno/the Justice Department
 - 2) The crisis in Kosovo: finding a diplomatic solution/the Russian proposal
 - 3) The Cox report/role of a Chinese double agent
 - 4) Interview with Dan Quayle about: Chinese espionage; the crisis in Kosovo; and George W. Bush's candidacy
- Guests:
- Rep. Chris Cox (R., California) (1)
 - Sen. Richard Lugar (R., Indiana) (2,3)
 - Sen. Carl Levin (D., Michigan) (3)
 - former Vice President Dan Quayle (4)

60 MINUTES

- 05/02/99
- "The Power Behind The Throne?"- Interview with Mirjana Markovic, wife of Yugoslav President Slobodan Milosevic (C: Dan Rather - P: Wayne Nelson, Marina Komarecki)
- "Medium Security, Maximum Problems"- CCA (Corrections Corporation of America), the largest private prison operator in the U.S., opened a supposedly low-risk medium security prison in Youngstown, Ohio, an area with a high unemployment rate. Problems arose when inmates who had been imprisoned for violent crimes, including murder, were brought in. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Ruth Streeter, Catherine Kim)
- "Janet's Story"- three years ago, 39-year-old Janet Sheikan was told that amniocentesis indicated that the child she was carrying had Edwards Syndrome, a severe birth defect. Ms. Sheikan, who after having an abortion, found that the fetus was in fact normal, is suing the hospital where the test was conducted as well as the laboratory which processed them. (C: Lesley Stahl - Jay Kernis, Evalyn Lee)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Let Andy Answer The Questions" - questions asked of readers by magazines
- 05/09/99
- "Above The Law?"- a report on John Bollard, who left a Jesuit seminary allegedly because he was subjected to sexual harassment from priests there. Bollard's law suit against the Jesuit order, asking for more than a million dollars in damages was thrown out of court but his lawyers have filed an appeal. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian)
- "Pyramid"- a report on Stan Van Etten, the 37-year-old founder of a network marketing company called International Heritage, who lured tens of thousands of people into investing in IHI with the promise of making easy money in their spare time. Includes an interview with Robert Fitzpatrick, an expert on illegal pyramid schemes and author of a book on the subject called False Profits. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Jonathan Wells)
- "Bibi"- an interview with Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Harry Radcliffe)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Old Clothes" - Andy goes through his closet

60 MINUTES (continued)

- 05/16/99 "The Moral Minority"- some of the former proponents of the once politically powerful 'religious right' feel that the movement seems to be running out of steam. Includes interviews with Cal Thomas and Ed Dobson, co-authors of Blinded By Might; Paul Weyrich, who coined the phrase 'moral majority'; Pat Robertson, founder and president of the Christian Coalition; Adam Wolfe, a sociologist who wrote a book on morality; and Gary Bauer, Republican presidential candidate. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)
"Connery, Sean Connery"- an interview with actor Sean Connery. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Mary Murphy)
"War Crimes"- a report from Balkan refugee camps where thousands of people say they saw Serbians commit rape, execution and mass murder. Includes an interview with Clint Williamson who leads a team for the UN War Crimes Tribunal; David Schefer, the State Department's war crimes expert; Louise Arbour, the Tribunal's Chief Prosecutor; and Gabrielle McDonald, the Tribunal's main judge. (C: Christiane Amanpour - P: Andrew Tkach)
Andy Rooney Topic: "News Around The Country" - stories in local newspapers
- 05/19/99 60 MINUTES CLASSIC SPECIAL: "The Con Men" (8:00-9:00p)- a retrospective of 60 MINUTES segments focusing on various types of con men including reports on: con artists who lied outright on camera; some who tried to avoid the camera and others who were happy to oblige; as well as occasions when 60 MINUTES was itself taken in, once by 60 MINUTES Correspondent Ed Bradley. (C: Morley Safer, Mike Wallace, Morley Safer, Lesley Stahl, Ed Bradley, Dan Rather - P: Barbara Dury, Deborah DeLuca Sheh, Gail Eisen - EP: Jeffrey Fager)
Andy Rooney Topic: things that have annoyed Andy over the years
- 05/23/99 "Whose Land Is It Anyway?"- focuses on a law suit involving the Oneida Indians and 20,000 homeowners residing in New York's Madison and Oneida Counties. The Indians claim that the land was taken from them illegally and must be returned. Includes an interview with Ray Halbritter, leader of the Oneida nation. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner)
"Y2K"- despite the billions being spent to deal with the Y2K computer bug, many local governments across the country can't guarantee their citizens basic services such as water and electricity on January 1, 2000. Includes interviews with Mary Ellen Hanley, a computer systems specialist hired by the District of Columbia and Senator Robert Bennett, Chairman of the Senate Special Committee on the Y2K problem. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine)
"Dress For Success"- a profile of Nancy Lublin and Dress For Success, a non-profit enterprise whose goal is to get poor women jobs. The women who are sent to the organization by job training programs are supplied with the proper clothing, makeup and hairdo to make them ready for a job interview. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Rejects" - segments that Andy taped but which were never aired

60 MINUTES (continued)

05/30/99 "In Memory Of Alisa"- Alisa Flatow, a 20-year-old honor student spending a semester in Israel, was killed in a terrorist attack. In 1996 Congress passed the Flatow Amendment which allows victims' families to sue foreign countries that sponsor terrorists but when Alisa's father, Steve, won a settlement against Iran the U.S. government has done everything in its power to keep him from collecting. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin) (OAD: 10/04/98)

"The Last Supper"- a report on the controversy surrounding the restoration of Da Vinci's "The Last Supper." Critics charge that rather than preserving the masterpiece the costly repair work is actually destroying it (C: Morley Safer - P: John Tiffin) (OAD: 05/05/96)

"Nelson & Graca" - when Nelson Mandela retires from South Africa's highest office next week, it will be with a new wife, Graca Machel, the former first lady of neighboring Mozambique. Bob Simon profiles this remarkable woman, who is almost as famous for freedom fighting in Africa as her new husband. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Gavshon)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Dog Food" - labels on dog food (OAD: 10/05/97)

48 HOURS

05/06/99 "The Confession"- report on the murder, last year, of 12-year-old Stephanie Crowe of Escondido, California. The girl's 14-year-old brother Michael, and his two friends confessed to the killing. Mary Ellen Attridge, their attorney, claims that the confessions were false, the results of police coercion, focusing her case on Richard Tuite, a mentally ill transient seen in the neighborhood the night of the murder. DNA testing of Tuite's sweatshirt revealed Stephanie's blood, and charges against the boys have been dropped for now but could be refiled at any time. The Crowes have filed a civil lawsuit alleging police interrogators and the prosecutor violated the family's civil rights. (C: Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Katie Boyle, Katherine Davis, Jay Young)

05/13/99 "Murder For Hire?"- focuses on the murder of Sheila Bellush, a Sarasota, Florida mother of six children, including quadruplets. Evidence led police to arrest three men for the crime, but Sheila's family feels that her ex-husband, Allen Blackthorne, hired them to kill her. Blackthorne, who had been heard to threaten Sheila following their bitter divorce, has not been charged with the crime and refuses to cooperate with investigators. Jamie Bellush, Sheila's husband and father of the quadruplets, has filed a wrongful death civil against Blackthorne which is scheduled to go to trial in the fall. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Marc Goldbaum, Jennifer Buksbaum, Lisa Freed)

05/20/99 PREEMPTION

05/27/99 "Price of Perfection"- examines the consequences of the struggle to be physically perfect. Includes interviews with: 16-year-old Alicia Mitchell, who is suffering from anorexia and bulimia; Dr. Edward Demancus, a plastic surgeon whose patients include an increasing number of teenagers; psychologist Lilli Friedland; Dr. Harry Glassman, a Beverly Hills plastic surgeon who questions the safety of some cosmetic procedures on patients under the age of 18; Tim Costello and David Balfour who suffer from BDD (body dysmorphic disorder; and Rob Ashton, a bodybuilder whose obsession with fitness has actually damaged his body (C: Cynthia Bowers, Troy Roberts, Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Jim Murphy - P: Anthony Batson, Peter Henderson, Sophia Kim, Diane Ronnau)